

ANGLE

Angle is an expandable conference table whose form and character gives a light and airy impression. Angle radiates flexibility and efficiency. It will easily fit into many different environments, as the table is available in several heights, shapes and variants. The legs of the conference table have wellmade details in the form of joints in die-cast aluminium, in white or black powder lacquer. Accessories include a square cable access with protective edging and a cable net. Available in two heights: 720 mm and 870 mm.
